

Raj Kumar is an IT graduate with MSc.in E-Commerce from University of Westminster, U.K. He has 10 years experience in training and education related to computer and web applications. He started his career as a corporate trainer and then pursued to become an IT lecturer cum Programme Leader for matriculation programmes. Later he had decided to pursue a more challenging role in the corporate environment specifically in the field on IT Security.

At CyberSecurity Malaysia, he is in the Training and Outreach Department and is actively involved in initiatives related to Security awareness and competency building programmes. He has developed security awareness materials and has contributed to publication related to cyber security. His role at CyberSecurity Malaysia include:

- Coordination and management of training, seminars and security related events conducted by CyberSecurity Malaysia to professionals, general public and organisations
- Liaison with partners and establishing working relationship for security related resources
- Attend and participate in security conferences to gain insight in current issues and trends in information security
- Conduct security awareness and other security related training and talks
- Design and formulate initiatives, methods and requirement specification on Security Awareness Raising project
- Involved in content development for Security Awareness related resources
- Coordination and management of information sharing platform (INFOSEC.my Knowledge Sharing) event
- Coordination and management of Special Interest Groups for information sharing
- on selected security domain
- Contributor/Content writer for cyber security Newsletter and Publications